“The Texas Girls Coaches Association has been working with the Arlington Convention & Visitors Bureau every even year since 1988. TGCA is very appreciative for the guidance and service presented to us in a warm, congenial and sincere manner. We feel, through the efforts of the Arlington CVB, we are a part of the Arlington family. Our coaches look forward to coming to Arlington, because the hotels, convention center, restaurants, and entertainment venues make them feel special. We cherish our relationship with the Arlington CVB.”

TEXAS GIRLS COACHES ASSOCIATION

Chef Spotlight

Robert Stehlin
Executive Chef, ACC
Culinaire International

with
Laurie Dove
Texas
Meetings +
Events

A

After experiencing some of the most impressive convention center cuisine we've ever encountered, Texas Meetings + Events sat down with Executive Chef Robert Stehlin of Culinaire International, who has been serving fine fare at the Arlington Convention Center for more than 14 years.

Catering for large groups isn't normally thought of as leading-edge cuisine.

Our philosophy on cooking at the ACC is to cook with as many fresh ingredients as possible. Our kitchen is 90 percent from scratch. We make our own sauces, vinaigrettes and use only fresh chicken and beef. We also use small amounts of expensive ingredients such as truffle oil, saffron, fresh microgreens, exotic fruits and heirloom tomatoes.

How has the Arlington Convention Center set itself apart, in terms of catering? How will it continue to do so?

We have a very dedicated and longterm staff with a commitment to personal service. Their years of experience and consistent efforts to always seek new and innovative menu items are a major asset. For example, we are often a less expensive alternative to hotels and competing convention centers, while still providing innovative items like our gourmet popcorn station. Plain popcorn is made exciting by tossing it with dill truffle oil, jalapeño cheddar butter, bacon blue cheese butter or cinnamon and sugar. Then it is served from vintage popcorn carts at an action station.

What's the best food you've ever eaten (prepared by the ACC's catering staff, of course)?

We recently hosted a baseball themed event. The client was looking for something fun that fit the theme but that was still upscale. I created a lobster corn dog served with a whole grain mustard hollandaise and filet mignon. It was really exceptional and the guests loved it too.

Chef Robert's Famous

~ BREAD ~ PUDDING

9x11 cake dish

6 Croissants, 1 Loaf French Bread or Brioche

} Cut into 2x2 cubes – enough to fill cake dish

CUSTARD: 1 quart heavy cream, 12 whole eggs
1 cup sugar, 2 tsp vanilla, 1 tsp cinnamon

Mix eggs and sugar together until smooth.
Add cream, vanilla and cinnamon – combine well.

STREUSEL TOPPING: 1 stick butter, ½ cup flour,
½ cup brown sugar – cut butter into flour and brown sugar mixture until crumbly.

DIRECTIONS: Let the bread dry uncovered on a sheet pan for one day. Butter the cake dish and place the bread evenly in the cake dish. Cover the bread with mixed custard. Let the pudding sit for one hour in the refrigerator. Cover the pudding with foil and place in the middle of an oven that has been preheated to 350 degrees. Bake for 45 minutes. Uncover, sprinkle the streusel topping on top and bake uncovered for an additional 15 minutes.

CRÈME ANGLAISE: 12 egg yolks, 1 cup sugar,
1 quart heavy cream, beans from 1 vanilla bean

Heat the cream and vanilla bean to a soft boil. While the cream is heating, whip the sugar and eggs together on medium speed until well combined and fluffy. When the cream is at a soft boil, gradually stir half of the cream mixture into the sugar and egg mixture. Once the sugar and egg mixture is tempered, combine it with the remaining cream mixture. Return to the stove and stir constantly over medium heat until it coats the back of a wood spoon and you can draw a line in the crème and it stays. Place the crème anglaise in the refrigerator until cool. Pour over warm bread pudding and serve immediately. ~

LOCATION is everything

ARLINGTON, TEXAS

A CONVENIENT LOCATION AND VARIED TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS ARE VALUABLE ASSETS THAT ENCOURAGE ATTENDANCE.

Because of a central location in the continental United States between Dallas and Fort Worth and a placement at the crossroads of five interstate highways, Arlington offers unparalleled accessibility.

BY AIR Arlington is 10 miles from Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, the third busiest airport in the world and no more than 4 hours by air from every major city in the country. Most of our hotels offer complimentary shuttles to and from DFW Airport.

Arlington is 30 minutes from Dallas Love Field, home to carrier Southwest Airlines. The Love Field Modernization Program (LFMP) renovations are also underway: a centralized concourse with 20 gates, a remodeled lobby, expanded baggage claim area and a new ticketing wing. For corporate, cargo and recreational pilots, the Arlington Municipal Airport also offers accessibility and convenience.

BY TRAIN Amtrak operates multiple trains in the DFW area, like the Heartland Flyer out of Fort Worth and the Texas Eagle out of Dallas. The Trinity Railway Express (TRE) commuter train connects to the downtown areas of Dallas and Fort Worth, with stops at DFW Airport. Trains operate Monday through Saturday.

BY CAR Arlington sits at the crossroads of five interstate highways, making the average drive time to most major cities in the state and region approximately three to five hours.

ENTERPRISE RENT-A-CAR offers multiple locations and will even pick up your attendees. Reference discount code # L9C1291 when booking, visit www.enterprise.com or call 817-459-4001.

BY CAB Yellow Cab, with the largest taxi fleet in North Texas, serves the DFW area with taxi, sedan, shuttle van and limo services, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. For booking options, visit www.arlington.org/yellow-cab.

BY BUS - Dan Dipert Tours & Coaches (817-654-3622) and Roadrunner Charters (972-692-5477) proudly provide motorcoaches and shuttle buses in a variety of sizes and capacities for your mass transportation needs. Whether you are planning an evening event, a spouse activity or an airport run, count on their excellent customer service free of charge. For booking options, contact jessicac@dandipert.com or donna@roadrunnercharters.com. Mention the Arlington CVB to both Dan Dipert Tours & Coaches and Roadrunner Charters.

BY TROLLEY Guests of participating hotels* receive complimentary trolley transportation to the Arlington Welcome Center, Six Flags Over Texas, Hurricane Harbor, Globe Life Park in Arlington, AT&T Stadium, plus additional shopping, dining and entertainment locations like Lincoln Square.

Complimentary trolley service is available to groups based on room night stays at participating Trolley District hotels. The ACVB staff will determine eligibility, make arrangements and oversee the schedule with the Trolley District. Contact our Services Team to qualify.

F&V Local Flavors

If you like entertaining your taste buds, let's just say that our city is your oyster. Arlington boasts one of the most diverse culinary scenes in Texas. Who doesn't love a little local fare. Check out some of our staff favorites:

Staff Picks

AL'S HAMBURGERS 1001 NE GREEN OAKS BLVD SUITE #103

Check out local staple Al's Hamburgers, established in 1957, in Northeast Arlington for seriously delicious local fare. Cut to order fries, made from scratch cheesecake and of course, Al's famous burgers.

"You can't go wrong with a cheeseburger and fries. Plus, the money's right!"

– Kelly, Convention Sales
Administrative Assistant

ARLINGTON STEAK HOUSE 1724 W. DIVISION ST.

Originally called the Triangle Inn, Arlington Steak House is the oldest restaurant in Arlington, boasting a rich history in the 1930's when Top O'Hill Casino regulars would eat after a day of illegal gambling.

"Possibly the best Chicken Fried Steak that I have ever had. And I would be perfectly happy making a meal of the rolls and green beans alone."

– Michael, Digital Marketing Manager

BABE'S CHICKEN DINNER HOUSE 230 N. CENTER ST

Have you ever seen a giant mountain of delicious fried chicken? Come to Babe's, where you get a family-sized portion for the whole family to share. Make sure to save room for a mandatory slice of one of their out-of-this-world pies.

"I always get the chicken tenders with a side of gravy for dipping, and I could eat the whole bowl of corn by myself...good biscuits too!"

– Cynthia, Executive Assistant

CATFISH SAM'S 2735 W. DIVISION ST.

Catfish with all the fixin's? You got it. But don't fill up on the plentiful pre-meal set up. Their catfish is the main attraction.

"Fried catfish (regular) is my favorite. They have a 'setup dish' that is free with a meal, but it is a meal in itself – hush puppies, beans, onions, peppers."

– Joel, VP, Finance & Administration

DAVID'S BBQ 2224 W. PARK ROW DR., SUITE H

From the fall-off-bone ribs to the deliciously seasoned and carefully cooked pulled pork, it's a no-brainer for those traveling with a craving for some top-notch Texas barbeque. They also sell Mindy Lu's fried pies—an Arlington original and favorite.

"It's a barbeque joint, so I would choose the two meat entrée, brisket and turkey. Say hello to Owner Jimmy Harris and save room for the complimentary soft serve ice cream cones after your meal."

– David, Sr. Director of National Accounts

EL GABACHO TEX MEX GRILL 2408 W. ABRAM ST.

Not only is the atmosphere inviting, but El Gabacho delivers on the Tex-Mex experience. Don't forget the margaritas in strawberry and swirl!

"The sour cream chicken chile relleno is ridiculously good. You get a huge plate of food, and the chips & salsa are unique there... warm salsa."

– Matt, Director of Sports

FORK IN THE ROAD
1821 S. FIELDER RD.

One word: Crack-a-Roni. The savory blend of truffle oil and multiple cheese will melt in your mouth or try Arlington Today's 2014 "Favorite Hamburger" Reader's Choice.

"Get there early for lunch, it's small and fills up fast. The grilled cheese sandwich is amazing and the mac'n cheese is out of this world."

— Jon, Vice President, Sales

OLENJACK'S GRILLE
70 E. RD. TO SIX FLAGS #100

Chef Brian Olenjack serves up casual fine dining and sophisticated Texas-Inspired flavors like Shrimp & Grits, Goat Cheese Grits & Ancho Pulled Pork. The covered patio and private dining room accommodate up to 215 guests.

"The Sweet Potato Polenta and Grape Tomato Bruschetta are must-haves. I always save room for the Crème Brulee Trio."

— Lisa, Project Manager

PICCOLO MONDO
829 E. LAMAR BLVD.

Fine dining is better with someone special or a group of friends. Enjoy the ambiance and live piano music as you savor homemade Italian food like the Gnocchi al Pomodoro or Veal Parmigiana.

"I always ask them to make the tomato sauce more spicy for the Gnocchi."

— Neetu, Partnerships

PRINCE LEBANESE GRILL
502 W. RANDOL MILL RD.

If you want Mediterranean food in Arlington, look no further than Prince, with authentic gyros, shawarma, falafel, tzatziki, baklava and much more. Food Network's 'Diners, Drive-Ins & Dives' brought food aficionado Guy Fieri to Arlington just to try it—look for his graffiti on the wall.

"The chicken shawarma is awesome! The family that owns and operates the restaurant are great folks and do an amazing job making you feel at home."

— Ronnie, President & CEO

PULIDO'S MEXICAN CAFÉ
3330 MATLOCK RD.

Stop by Pulido's for deliciously convenient Tex-Mex food at a great price. Plus, they have a $4.99 enchilada dinner every Monday.

"It is family owned and has been in Arlington for a very long time. I recommend their taco salad and quesadillas."

— Shelley, Admin. & HR Assistant

TASTE OF EUROPE
1901 W. PIONEER PKWY.

Provoke your tastebuds and don't be afraid to try something new. Taste of Europe is an authentic Russian restaurant with a built-in grocery/deli. Food Network's 'Diners, Drive-Ins & Dives' brought food aficionado Guy Fieri to try the authentic and delicious borscht, stuffed cabbage and beef stroganoff.

"The owners are awesome, and the food is one-of-a-kind. Find salamis and hard to find types of cheeses in the deli."

— Decima, Sr. Director of Marketing & Public Relations

TRAIL DUST STEAK HOUSE
2300 E. LAMAR BLVD.

Trail Dust's unique atmosphere is a taste of Texas. Saddle up for juicy steaks, chicken, baked potatoes and more. Enjoy a two-story slide and dance floor where you can enjoy live music (call for schedule). Take that necktie off before you go...they'll cut it off!

"The food is delicious, but I really love the atmosphere. The restaurant looks like a red barn."

Top 10 reasons to select Arlington for your next event.

- 1) ONE WORD: ACCESSIBILITY! – Few destinations are as traveler-friendly as Arlington. DFW International Airport serves more than 24 scheduled airlines, providing non-stop service from more than 200 U.S. domestic and international cities combined.
- 2) CHAMPAGNE TASTE ON A BEER BUDGET – Have a ‘different’ budget or meeting size? Give us a try. Compared to other U.S. destinations, you’ll find Arlington accommodations and venues are among the best deals.
- 3) WE WORK FOR “HIGH-FIVES” – Imagine having a team of experts dedicated to your event and its success. Answering your questions. Trouble-shooting your needs. How much would you pay for this? Put your wallet away...our priceless services are complimentary to meeting and event planners that utilize hotel rooms in Arlington.
- 4) PERSONALIZED SERVICE – We’ve made a reputation of taking every client’s vision and making it happen. Don’t doubt the talent! Our VP of Convention Services once wrangled a live boxing kangaroo for a client’s event. Ka-pow!
- 5) HOTEL BLOCKS – No need to call around town to determine pricing when we can help you gather room block pricing. Talk about one-stop-shopping!
- 6) DID SOMEBODY SAY SHOPPING?? – Can shopping solve all the world’s problems? Maybe. Looking fabulous at your meeting or convention is a good place to start. Arlington offers amazing retail therapy—the Parks at Arlington Mall, Arlington Highlands, Grand Prairie Premium Outlets are within 5 short miles of each other. Let the healing begin.
- 7) MORE TO A MEETING THAN A MEETING – Hear the crack of the bat at Globe Life Park, take a whirl on a roller coaster, dine in a rustic barn...Arlington is all about experiences. Go on and brag to your friends and make ‘em ask “do you ever work?”
- 8) PLANES, TRAINS, AUTOMOBILES...AND TROLLEYS – We’re perfectly situated next to DFW International Airport, and our Services team is ready and willing to help you and your group/attendees get where they need to be. Need a party bus, stagecoach or our friendly neighborhood Arlington Trolley? They will pull out the stops, no pun intended, to get your group rolling (pun intended).
- 9) CURE FOR THE THE HICCUPS – Questions because something unexpected has happened to your event plans? We are a phone call away with vendor support and logistic suggestions to keep things on track.
- 10) WE’RE NATURALLY BEAUTIFUL – Breaktime! Stretch your legs and refocus beside the ACC’s scenic lake. Or burn off the ACC’s decadent bread pudding on the adjacent outdoor walking trails. Arlington boasts River Legacy Park, which is a 1,300-acre urban oasis that follows the scenic Trinity River. And it’s hard to find a more beautiful course than the award-winning Tierra Verde Golf Club. We have the nifty Audubon-Society sanction to prove it.
