

YOUR PERFECT BLUE RIDGE MOUNTAIN SPORTS DESTINATION

5,000+
GUEST ROOMS

The City of Salem, known as “Virginia’s Championship City,” has hosted over 70 NCAA National Championships including football, softball, basketball, lacrosse and volleyball.

The Roanoke Valley in Virginia’s Blue Ridge has developed a national reputation for hosting great sporting events.

Our location in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia on the East Coast of the United States makes the Roanoke Valley easily accessible for athletes, teams and families. The setting and climate also means great weather throughout the year for all kinds of outdoor sports.

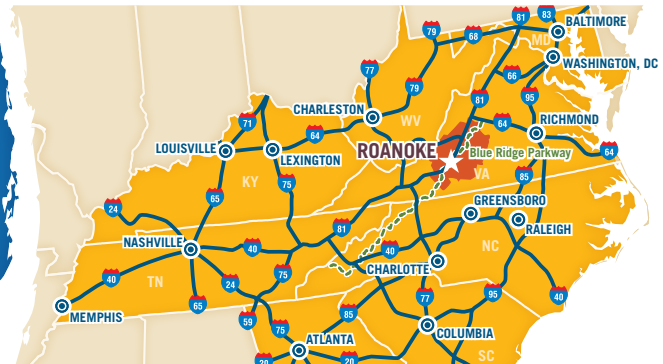

We have an impressive inventory of well-maintained, centrally-located fields and facilities that can accommodate all types of sports – ranging from collegiate to professional events. In addition, we have hosted non-traditional sports such as orienteering, dragon boat racing, quidditch, mountain biking, stair climbing races, cyclocross, etc.

The variety of hotels within close proximity to the sports facilities is something athletes and spectators will appreciate.

Most importantly, the experienced tournament directors and facility managers in Virginia’s Blue Ridge know how to organize sporting events and provide services to help make yours a success.
