

Code of Conduct

August 19, 2020

2020 Intelligence & National Security Summit Code of Conduct

The Intelligence & National Security Summit is committed to providing a safe and welcoming experience for all Summit participants, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, religion, race, ethnicity or disability. Unacceptable behavior will not be tolerated during any portion of the event.

Unacceptable behavior includes but is not limited to:

- Intimidating, harassing, abusive, discriminatory, derogatory or demeaning speech or actions.
- Harmful or prejudicial verbal or written comments or visual images related to gender, sexual orientation, race, religion, disability or other personal characteristics, including those protected by law.
- Inappropriate use images.
- Real or implied threat of professional or financial damage or harm.
- Inappropriate disruption of the event.
- Solicitation is prohibited unless you are an authorized sponsor or exhibitor
- Photographing, video or audio recording of slides, oral or poster presentations without presenter/author's permission.
- Encouraging the above behavior.

Whether such behavior constitutes unacceptable behavior as defined above shall be determined by the Intelligence & National Security Summit representatives, in their sole discretion. Any event participant requested to stop any unacceptable behavior is expected to comply immediately.

If a participant engages in harassing behavior, the conference organizers may take any action they deem appropriate, including warning the offender or expulsion from the conference with no refund, barring you from future AFCEA/INSA events or termination of membership.

Reporting Unacceptable Behavior

If you are the subject of unacceptable behavior as defined above or have witnessed any such unacceptable behavior, please immediately notify the Intelligence & National Security Summit representatives by emailing IntelSummit@support.eventpower.com.