WHAT WILL YOU DISCOVER ON YOUR CHATTANOOGA SPRING BREAK SAFARI?

The inclusive Chattanooga Spring Break Safari transforms the city into a place where kids rule and adventure is everywhere. Kids can't resist exploring the world with lots of hands-on activities designed just for them.

While on Spring Break Safari in Chattanooga, kids can be a Pirate aboard a riverboat; Sword Fighter on a quest to see the Queen; Conductor and travel the rails; Island Explorer and meet the new lemurs; Speleologist deep within a cave; Zookeeper and encounter some of nature's wildest creatures; Rock Climber and scale boulders; RockQuest Adventurer on an enchanted trail; Art Explorer and uncover hidden treasures; Inventor and create new things; or an Artisanal Adventurer and learn about cooking techniques.

Start anywhere you would like; all adventures are independent of each other. Most experiences are available Friday, March 10 - Sunday, April 9, 2017. Check the details for each event.

Families can discover more about Chattanooga on an exciting Scavenger Hunt! Explore the city and complete each Scavenger Hunt at your own pace. Solve the clues together or if you get stuck, you can ask someone at the attraction or check out the answers at the end of the guide.

Spring Break Safari attractions and Scavenger Hunt locations are marked on the tear-out map.

HAVE FUN!

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SCAVENGER HUNT

The attractions are offering two separate Scavenger Hunts – one is outside the entry (free) and one is inside the attraction (with paid admission). There are also three additional hunts located around the city in the Riverfront, North-Shore, and Southside Districts.

1. Grab your official Spring Break Safari Guide at any of the participating attractions, Chattanooga Visitors Center located at 215 Broad Street, SpringHill Suites by Marriott/Downtown Cameron Harbor, Chattanooga Choo Choo, or The Chattanooga Hotel.
2. Pick a location to begin your adventure.
3. Take pictures of your answers and include yourself in the images.
4. Share on social media & tag your photos with #SpringBreakSafariCHA
5. Show all pictures to the designated person at the attractions to receive your special prize.*

* Scavenger Hunt is available any time of year. Prizes are only available March 10 - April 9, 2017.

ART EXPLORER

What if you could... be an art explorer at the Hunter Museum of American Art? Explore the stories of America from the colonial era to present day in the Museum's three distinct buildings.

Be an art explorer at the Hunter Museum, a great place for families to play, discover, and learn together. Stroll through the Museum's turn-of-the-century mansion, cruise through the groovy 1970s building, and enjoy amazing views of the Tennessee River from the futuristic contemporary building.

As you explore through the Hunter galleries, families will find more than just great art. They'll also catch glimpses of important people, places and events in America's history—like an imposing portrait of George Washington, Andy Warhol's pop art representation of Jacqueline Kennedy, or works by Winslow Homer and Grandma Moses.

DETAILS

- Dates available: Friday, March 10 - Sunday, April 9, 2017.
- Free Spring Break Guide - available at ticketing.
- Museum admission.
- Compass and mini magnifying glass.
- Hours: Mon., Tues., Fri., Sat., 10 a.m.-5 p.m.; Wed. and Sun., Noon-5 p.m.; Thurs., 10 a.m.-8 p.m.

Hunter Museum of American Art Scavenger Hunt

Exterior

1. This sculpture looks like it is made of driftwood, but is actually constructed of bronze. Giddyap!
2. Alexander Calder playfully called this sculpture "Pregnant Whale." What colors are used to create this whimsical work?
3. Money may not buy happiness, but this dancing couple seems pretty cheery as they dance on a bag of currency.
4. Batter up! This John Dreyfuss sculpture features America's favorite pastime.

Exterior Prize: Show all exterior photos to someone at the ticket desk and get your prize of an art-themed sticker.

Interior

1. In Reginald Marsh's "Subway - 14th Street," one woman stands against the crowd as urbanites pour out of subway cars deep below the city. What color is her dress?
2. The second floor of the mansion holds a view of a tiny cabin dwarfed by mountains and bathed in a peachy glow. Which artist created this peaceful scene in "A Home in the Wilderness?"
3. An immigrant himself, Francis L. Mora depicted other immigrants of different classes and nationalities in this painting. What are they riding?
4. Beth Lipman's "Flowers, Bread, Chalice, and Sticks" piece depicts a dinner party gone awry. What material is her sculpture made from?
5. Robert Stackhouse created a vast seascape depicting boats people have used to glide on water in "Listings and Sailings." How many are in the painting?

Interior Prize: Show all interior photos to someone at the ticket desk and get your prize pack of crayons.

ARTISANAL ADVENTURER

What if you could... be an artisanal adventurer in the Bluff View Art District?

Discover the District on your own artistic adventure...a scavenger hunt designed specifically for your age group that will guide you through a world of art and exploration!

Be an artisanal adventurer and explore the Bluff View Art District's nooks and crannies. Learn about the arts, architecture, gardening and cooking techniques that make up the District. Pick up your "Artisanal Adventurer Map" at Rembrandt's Coffee House, and once you've solved the scavenger hunt's mysteries, return to Rembrandt's for your sweet reward (for children 12 and under).

Go on a fine art quest scavenger hunt that takes your mind on an advanced visual adventure. Solve five challenging riddles while exploring the whole Bluff View Art District. Once you have all five answers, return to River Gallery for a prize (for children 12 and up).

Find out what it's like to be a starving artist. Grab your "Artist Notebook" at Bluff View Bakery and head out to River Gallery Sculpture Garden. Write about or draw the kind of meal the sculptor would use to inspire their work. Does the bent metal of Frank Stella's "Borsippa" bring about dreams of spaghetti and meatballs? Feed your imagination with this adventure combining food and art (for all ages)!

DETAILS

- Dates available: Friday, March 10 - Sunday, April 9, 2017.
- Free Spring Break Safari Guide & Artisanal Adventure Map – available at Rembrandt's Coffee House. Free Starving Artist Notebook – available at Bluff View Bakery
- Artisanal Adventurer & Fine Art Quest: Mon.-Sat., Noon-5 p.m. & Sun., 1-5 p.m.

Bluff View Art District Scavenger Hunt

Exterior

1. For weary travelers I'm a welcome sight - a vibrant red, cheery, and bright. At the entrance to the Inn, I'm easy to see. Look between the flower pots, you can't miss me.
2. Through the window you can look into this kitchen's little nook. A chocolatier's tools make a whimsical sight, his creations are sure to delight.
3. Poised about the river ready to fly, equipped with wings he'll take to the sky. Inspired by Greek mythology and lore, too close to the sun did he soar.
4. Follow your nose, this spot you can smell. Find flour footprints and you'll do well. The ovens are hot, the bread ready to eat, be sure to try a loaf - it's a treat!
5. Grab a cup of coffee, sandwich and a sweet, out on the patio you can take a seat. House-roasted coffee and pastries are my claims to fame; a famous artist and I share a name.

Exterior Prize: Show all exterior photos and get your prize of a Bluff View engraved doubloon.

CONDUCTOR

What if you could... be a conductor aboard a train at the Tennessee Valley Railroad Museum?

Grab your engineer's cap and be an imaginary conductor for the day! Jump aboard the Tennessee Valley Railroad Museum's locomotive train and travel along Missionary Ridge.

Grab your engineer's cap and be a conductor aboard a vintage train. You'll experience one of the original rail lines into Chattanooga; witness two unique methods of turning a train around: the better known turntable, and the wye (think of doing a three-point turn with your car and you're close); and ride through the Missionary Ridge Tunnel, especially noted for its uniqueness as a horseshoe tunnel.

Missionary Ridge Local trains run daily mid-March through October and weekends only in November. Additional services offered throughout the year include Chickamauga Turn trains to Chickamauga, Georgia on summer weekends, Dixie Land Special excursions into northwest Georgia, and North Pole Limited trains during the holidays. Grand Junction Station is located near I-75, Exit 4 at the Jersey Pike exit from Highway 153.

DETAILS

- Dates available: Friday, March 10 - April 9, 2017.
- Free Spring Break Safari Guide – available at ticketing.
- 50-55 minute train ride on the Missionary Ridge Local trip ONLY.
- Guided tour of East Chattanooga equipment repair/restoration facility.
- Watch the turntable demonstration.
- Children get a free admission (when accompanied by a paying adult, limit one free ticket per family) to ride a Missionary Ridge Local train when they show the Spring Break Safari Guide.
- Schedule: Train schedule available on website.
- Cost: $17 for adults; $11 for children ages 3-12; Free for children under 2 years old.

Tennessee Valley Railroad Scavenger Hunt

Exterior

1. What kind of pulling power is needed to move the train?
2. How do you know a train has passed -- It leaves behind what?
3. Look, Stop & Listen for important advice when crossing the tracks.
4. When boarding the train, who punches your tickets?
5. Need a date? Look at this wall display for plenty!

Exterior Prize: Show all photos to someone in the gift shop and get your exclusive TVRM locomotive stickers.

Interior

1. Start out going west and end up where?
2. Look up in the air... it's a bird, it's a plane, no it's a...
3. Red means stop, but so does this other color on the railroad.
4. Don't flip a train -- Turn it around on what?

Interior Prize: Show all photos to someone in the gift shop and get your exclusive TVRM locomotive stickers.

INVENTOR

What if you could. . . be an inventor at the Creative Discovery Museum? Science comes to life with numerous hands-on experiences in the all-new Make It Gallery.

Children can be inventors and make science come to life with numerous hands-on experiences. In the new Make It Gallery, kids can create new things using tools from hammers and saws to sewing machines and electronics. Some of the guided projects held in Make It include woodworking, sewing, construction, electronics and upcycling. Also located in the space are pre-programmed magnetic blocks that make assembling a robot simple.

The Creative Discovery Museum also includes many interactive permanent exhibits including RiverPlay, Little Yellow House, Visual & Performing Arts galleries, Excavation Station, Corner Clinic, Make It Gallery, Buzz Alley & Bee Garden, Rooftop Fun Factory, Lookout Tower, Culinary Corner and much more.

DETAILS

- Dates available: Friday, March 10 - April 9, 2017.
- A Free Spring Break Safari Guide - available at ticketing.
- Access to all the permanent exhibits.
- Access to the temporary exhibit Kings, Queens & Castles (Jan. 14 - May 14, 2017).
- Hours: Daily, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.
- Cost: $13.95 per person ages 2 and up (includes admission to the Museum).
- Groups: Reservations requested. Call 423-648-6045, Mon.-Fri. 9 a.m.-5 p.m. to book advance registration.

Creative Discovery Museum Scavenger Hunt

Exterior

1. Stand in the middle, be sure not to plop; this wall will surround you, don't let it pop!
2. It stands silent until you strike it, then its sound is so loud, it never seems quiet!
3. We appreciate all who donate to the CDM! Here you can find some of their names and thank them!
4. Some people walk, some people drive. Some ride their bikes and this is where they park them.
5. First look up, then look down. Oh, it's a shadow on the ground.

Exterior Prize: Show all exterior photos to an employee at the ticket desk to get a Museum sticker.

Interior

1. In the garden on a bright, beautiful day, this is where Kings, Queens and Bishops play!
2. Thanks to our friends at EPB, we can play a game and learn about electricity!
3. I'm used in fireworks and gunpowder. I definitely stink. You must crawl through a cave to find me!
4. Stop and go. Stop and go. That's how you make these videos!
5. The electric charge follows your hand around. It goes through your body and escapes to the ground!

Interior Prize: Show all interior photos to an employee in the gift shop for an exciting Mystery Gift.

ISLAND EXPLORER

What if you could... be an island explorer at the Tennessee Aquarium? Kids will explore the new Lemur Forest exhibit and meet thousands of aquatic and terrestrial creatures living in the Aquarium's two huge buildings.

Kids can become island explorers when they visit the new Lemur Forest exhibit. Ring-tailed and red-ruffed lemurs reach new heights as they climb up, down and around a lush rainforest setting. Native to the island of Madagascar, lemurs are agile animals that spend their time leaping, swinging and sunbathing. Several large radiated tortoises accompany the lemurs in the newly renovated Tropical Cove. The Stingray Bay touch tank has been enhanced to provide everyone, especially kids, easier access to the sea creatures gently swimming in the warm waters. Kids will also enjoy special island-themed spring break programs and more than one dozen Extraordinary Experience programs that are offered FREE each day with Aquarium admission. Download the FREE Tennessee Aquarium app to see the complete listing of programs.

Don't miss the Monster Fish exhibit through April 15! This special National Geographic exhibit chronicles the global adventures of Dr. Zeb Hogan, aquatic ecologist and host of "Monster Fish" on the Nat Geo Wild! Channel. His quest to find, study and protect the world's remaining giant freshwater fish comes alive through life-sized fish replicas, videos and hands-on interactive displays. After seeing how big these titanic fish can get, observe many of these behemoths living in the Aquarium's River Giants exhibit.

Herons, osprey, bald eagles and more! You never know what you'll see when cruising aboard the River Gorge Explorer. An Aquarium naturalist delivers a fun mix of nature notes and historical facts during each two-hour excursion. Check website for Spring Break schedule.

IMAX 3D: Check website for daily schedule.

DETAILS

- Dates available: Friday, March 10 - Sunday, April 9, 2017.
- Free Spring Break Safari Guide – available at ticketing and all entrances.

SPELEOLOGIST

What if you could. . . venture underground and be a speleologist inside a deep cavern at Ruby Falls on Lookout Mountain? Learn about rocks and geology and view the cave's mysterious chambers and amazing rock formations!

What's a speleologist you ask? It's someone who studies caves, their history, structure, physical properties, and how they change over time. As you journey deep underground to Ruby Falls, use your Safari Guide to discover the answers to questions during your cave and waterfall tour. This is a recreational activity of exploring a cave, also known as caving and spelunking. You will be dazzled as your guide shares tales of folklore and history and teaches you about the rocks and geology throughout the cave's mysterious chambers.

Ruby Falls is America's deepest cave accessible to the public and has the largest underground waterfall! Show your completed Ruby Falls scavenger hunt (page 20) to the staff at the end of your tour and receive a free geode – that is cracked open for you to see inside the rock!

Show your Safari Guide to your tour guide, or ask for one before you begin your tour at the Ruby Falls ticket desk.

DETAILS

- Dates available: Friday, March 10 - Sunday, April 9, 2017.
- Free Spring Break Safari Guide – available at ticketing.
- Regular tour of Ruby Falls – cave and waterfall.
- Free geode rock per child, cracked open for them to see inside with a valid coupon (see page 27).
- 10% off gift and food purchases.
- Hours: 8 a.m.-8 p.m. daily, tours last approximately 1 hour & 15 minutes; geode-cracking in gift shop after tour.
- Cost: $11.95/children; $19.95/adults.

Ruby Falls Scavenger Hunt

ZOOKEEPER

What if you could... be a zookeeper at the Chattanooga Zoo? Observe some of nature's wildest creatures from all over the world right here at the Chattanooga Zoo.

Become a zookeeper and observe some of nature's wildest creatures from all over the world. As you travel abroad, you'll encounter chimpanzees, red pandas, snow leopards, jaguars, reptiles, a camel and many more animals in their naturalistic habitats. You'll also get the chance to get "up close and personal" during animal encounters with some of the Zoo's wildest residents. Learn about the animal habitats and how to care for their nutritional and enrichment needs.

Explore even more exotic animals in one of the behind-the-scenes programs that offer hands-on experiences. The WILD Encounter program is offered six days a week with many different animals including red pandas and spider monkeys. Pricing varies per animal encounter. The Zookeeper for a Day program is available the first and third Saturday of each month, 9 a.m.-3 p.m. This experience includes real zookeeper work experience. Price is $200 for Zoo members and $250 for non-members. Reservations are required for both programs.

- Animal Adventure Shows: Learn about the different animals in all the regions of the world, and how you can help those animals in need; 2 p.m. every Sat. & Sun.
- Hours: Daily, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.
- Regular Zoo admission price: $9.95 for adults; $6.95 for children ages 3-15; Free for children under 2 years old.

Chattanooga Zoo Scavenger Hunt

Exterior

1. A good tip here is to look for gravel, on top of these the Tennessee Valley Railroad travels.
2. Although I do not tend to hop, you can hold on until the ride stops.
3. This might be where you stop to pay, before enjoying the Zoo for all of the day!
4. In real life I come from Nepal, but here I look pretty nice as the wall!
5. One letter of many, this is true. This place is the place that welcomes you!

Exterior Prize: Show the Gift Shop staff all of your exterior photos and you will receive a prize.

Interior

1. This calls us to dinner and the one who gets there the fastest is the winner!
2. I have very soft fur & I love to graze, if you get me to smile you'll be amazed!
3. I'm small but I'm sleek, watch me show off my burrowing technique!
4. We have very small paws, and we love to dig. And no no no we are not guinea pigs!
5. These represent a culture from far away mountains, follow the path & you'll see a fountain!
6. Feathers or gemstones, you can decide - but don't get too close or I'll run & hide!
7. My brother & I live together on exhibit, we are so happy when you come to visit!
8. Some people think I have a cute mask and the sunlight is where I love to bask!
9. My namesake only has one horn, but along my spine a great many adorn!
10. My eyes are wise, and so is my heart, I am one of seven and I do my part.

Interior Prize: Show the gift shop staff all of your interior photos and you will receive one free camel ride ticket.
