WELCOME TO THE Daytona Beach Area and Biketoberfest®

OCTOBER 16-19, 2014!

We're excited to welcome you to Daytona Beach for the 22nd Annual Biketoberfest®, an annual festival that celebrates the fun and adventure loved by today's motorcycle enthusiasts.

This handy Pocket Guide is designed to introduce you to some of our favorite spots – both widely known and off the beaten path. No matter where you turn during your stay, you're sure to find something spectacular, including numerous street festivals, dozens of new and enticing eateries, touring rides, bike shows, live concerts, an eclectic variety of iconic watering holes, and pretty much everything you've come to expect from a top vacation destination. From Daytona Beach's legendary Main Street to the city's historic downtown, midtown and Speedway districts to Destination Daytona and, of course, our neighboring New Smyrna Beach and DeLand areas, you'll find plenty to see and do during the entire event.

We hope you'll spend an extra day or two to really explore the area and experience all that Biketoberfest® has to offer. Be sure to stop by the Official Biketoberfest® Welcome Tent for additional event information. The Welcome Tent is located on Beach Street in Riverfront Park. Additional copies of the Pocket Guide, along with visitor information, can be found at our Visitor Information Centers, located at Daytona International Speedway, 1801 West International Speedway Boulevard, Daytona Beach and at Destination Daytona, 1637 North U.S. Highway 1, Ormond Beach. All events are subject to change, so be sure to check out biketoberfest.org for the most up-to-date list of areawide happenings.

The advertisement features a row of four wine bottles with labels that include the Biketoberfest logo. The bottles are set against a dark background with decorative scrollwork. In the top left corner, there's a small image of a woman wearing a pilot's cap and goggles. The text "SWEET RIDE PREMIUM WINE" is prominently displayed in a serif font. Below it, the website "www.SWEETRIDEWINE.com" is listed. At the bottom, a red banner contains the slogan "Life is Sweet. Enjoy the Ride." in a cursive font, and below that, in a smaller font, "Ask for it in your local supermarket or wineshop." The Biketoberfest logo is also present in the bottom left corner of the ad.

Riders love the Biketoberfest® views! Our famous Ormond Scenic Loop & Trail in Ormond Beach, a Florida Scenic Highway, features a beautiful canopy of live oaks that make for a natural tunnel of green through Tomoka State Park and Bulow Creek State Park — as well as salt marshes and palm trees along the sparkling Atlantic coastline. This 30-plus mile double loop of roadways is home to some of the most beautiful and dynamic scenery truly reminiscent of Old Florida and includes unobstructed views of the river and ocean as well as historic landmarks.

OCTOBER IS LOBSTER MONTH AT

Vince Carter's

386-274-0015
2150 LPGA Boulevard, Daytona Beach
See our specials on our website www.vincecarters.com

Volusia County's "Southern Loop" begins at the intersection of International Speedway Boulevard (U.S. Highway 92) and Tomoka Farms Road (County Road 415) and heads south through bucolic farm country to the town of Osteen. Look for an amazing oak canopy that will cool you off with its shade and dazzle you with its greenery. Just past the tunnel of green you'll encounter the small town of Oak Hill, Volusia County's southernmost city. This ride takes you towards Edgewater and New Smyrna Beach where you can explore any number of shops and restaurants. Depending upon where your interests take you, you may end your ride anywhere along U.S. Highway 1, the road that will lead you back north to the "World's Most Famous Beach."

We know you love to ride, and we've got plenty more rides that you're sure to love! We've mapped out some Official Biketoberfest® Top Rides so you can rack up the miles, soak up the sun, take in the sights, and grab a tasty bite to eat:

- Old City Rendezvous (Daytona Beach to St. Augustine and back)
- Steel Horse Scoot (Daytona Beach to DeLand and back)
- River to River Tour (Tomoka River to the St. Johns River and back)
- Navigation Tour (Lighthouse to Ancient Turtle Mound and back)

Daytona Beach — Festival Capital of Florida

Biketoberfest® is just one of more than 40 festivals and events taking place during the Daytona Beach area's Festival Season, which continues through December 31.

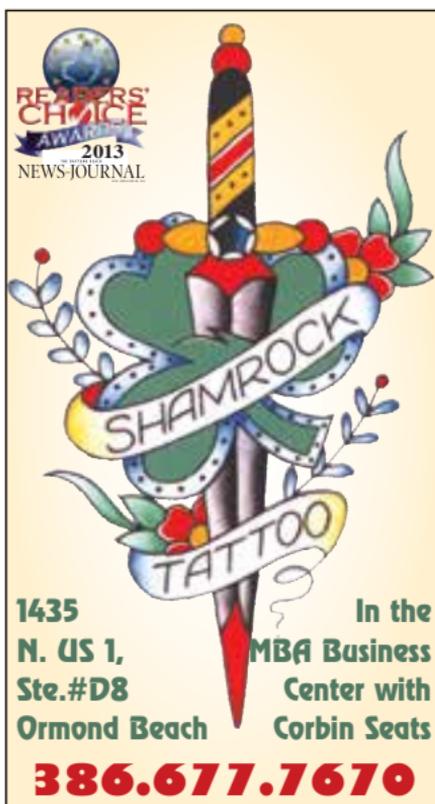

Practically every weekend throughout the fall and winter seasons you'll find a festival to entertain you and yours. Some — like Biketoberfest® — are world-famous, while others are just a whole lot of fun! Temperatures are dropping to sweater weather elsewhere, but here the climate is just right with warm beach days and cool evenings.

The Daytona Beach area is known as the Festival Capital of Florida and with good reason. Festivals abound, from the Daytona Beach Film Festival, Halifax Art Festival, Daytona Turkey Run, Wings & Waves air show, Daytona Blues Festival and many, many more! There truly is something for everyone, with events centered on great music, the arts, history, culture and most importantly, food! Visit DaytonaFestivalSeason.com for more details.

While you're here, explore the area's burgeoning culinary scene! Throughout the month of October, we'll be featuring tapas-sized teasers to some of our favorite one-of-a-kind eateries, via our Facebook and Twitter messages.
