

SHORTCUT TO GREAT MOUNTAIN MEETINGS.

Park City Chamber | Convention & Visitors Bureau

Sample 4-to-5 Day Summer/Fall Itinerary

Start planning the mountain meeting your guests will be talking about for years. Park City's alpine setting offers 30 venues with 125,000 square feet of professional meeting space. You'll find year-round activities for your group throughout our vibrant town including the Utah Olympic Park and three world-class resorts. One hundred area restaurants, dozens of galleries and local boutique shops invite your group to an experience like no other. And, it's all just 35 minutes from Salt Lake City International Airport, which means your attendees won't have to travel all day to get here. Below is a sample 4-5 day itinerary to give you some ideas of how your guests can spend their time when the day's meetings come to an end.

Get planning today! Schedule a site tour with one of our meeting specialists and we'll reimburse your airfare. Get details and more information here.

- | | |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Morning | Arrivals at Salt Lake City International Airport
Park City is a short 35-minute scenic ride from Salt Lake City International Airport. With 342 flights arriving daily on nine airlines, getting here is easy. |
| 12:00 pm | Visitor Information: Upon entering the Park City area, stop by the Visitor Information Center in Kimball Junction to gather maps, post cards, brochures and details about the mountain town, area attractions or recommendations from the visitor information specialists. |
| 12:30 pm | Lunch: Pre-plan a lunch at Redstone (a dining and shopping district within the Park City area). Or explore dining options at one of our three world-famous mountain resorts with many featuring fresh and locally-sourced ingredients. |
| 3:00 pm | Lodging/Accommodations Check-In: Park City properties offer 30 impressive lodging and meeting facilities, along with a professional staff that can accommodate a wide variety of catering, banquet and audiovisual needs - everything you need to hold a well-orchestrated meeting or conference. And we mean everything. With up to 125,000 square feet of meeting space and 4,000 committable rooms, you will easily find a memorable venue for your meeting. |
| 5:00 pm | Welcome Reception: Looking to plan a welcoming reception for your group? Whether it's dining alfresco while overlooking the mountain town or hiring local musicians for a special evening performance, we can help make it spectacular. Start with social hour and specialty cocktails, serve a locally prepared buffet or plan a more formal dining experience. Let us help coordinate local entertainment. Your guests will feel the quaint mountain town welcome from the start of their stay. |

- 8:00 am Breakfast: Start your first day of meetings with an on-site breakfast buffet and introduction to the purpose of their trip. Our friendly locals are experienced in the service industry and will ensure your group gets off to a great start for a productive first day.
- 9:00 am Meetings
- 12:00 pm Lunch: Let the meeting site handle the lunch hour. Plan an on-site lunch with indoor or outdoor dining options. This will allow your attendees a mid-day break but keep them focused and on-site for the remainder of the day's meetings.
- 1:00 pm Meetings
- 6:00 pm Dinner: Make reservations for a fun and engaging group dinner on Historic Main Street followed by some shopping at the local boutique shops or a group ghost tour to learn about the history of the mountain mining town.

DAY 3

- 8:00 am Breakfast: Plan a self-serve buffet that will allow your guests to enjoy a hearty breakfast and get started on morning meetings or learning sessions.
- 9:00 am Meetings
- 12:00 pm Lunch: Invite a chef into the meeting space for a twist on the traditional lunch buffet. With more chefs per capita than Paris, we have the talent to entertain your guests while ensuring every taste is fulfilled. Consider having a custom burger or sandwich bar with a chef preparing live for your group.
- 1:00 pm Meetings
- 6:00 pm Dinner and Activity: Schedule a group dinner followed with a planned group activity. May we suggest pizza and bowling on the private lanes at Jupiter Bowl? How about an evening outdoor concert under the stars with specially prepared local picnic baskets? And there's always ample group dining offered at each of our three year-round resorts along with scenic chairlift rides, zip lines, mountain biking or relaxed mountain trail walks.

DAY 4

- 8:00 am Breakfast: Plan a catered breakfast for your guests that will allow them to begin morning meetings while they dine.
- 9:00 am Meetings
- 12:00 pm Lunch: Arrange for a themed and engaging lunch. Invite local performers to entertain your guests while they enjoy the lunch hour. Consider inviting Olympic athletes from the Utah Olympic Park to show off their jumping skills and choreographed mid-air twists and turns with an on-site performance. Or invite a local keynote speaker to tie into the purpose of your meetings and recap the key takeaways from the meeting or convention. Leave your guests amazed and inspired with their stay and experience in Park City.
- 1:00 pm Meeting Recap and Early Out
- 2:00 pm Activities: Allow your guests an afternoon of “free” time with some planned activities that will encourage them to really experience the “Best Town Ever” as voted by Outside Magazine. Schedule resort activities such as chairlift rides, alpine coaster, paddle boats or zip lines, just to name a few. Or plan an outdoor outing for fly fishing or horseback riding. Looking for something a little more low-key? How about an hour or two at the spa? Park City has over a dozen world-renown spas offering their own signature therapies customized to your guests’ needs. Want some downtime on the golf course? With 12 mountainside courses to choose among, it’s easy to get a tee time on a picturesque course in our alpine setting.
- Looking for some other activity ideas? Check out the endless list of options and suggestions on our site: <http://www.visitparkcity.com/things-to-do/>
- 6:00 pm Dinner: Take a tour of Utah’s only whiskey distillery (and the world’s only ski-in distillery). Your guests will be treated to handcrafted whiskeys and vodkas while dining in the historic landmark building. Or reserve a private group dining area at one of many Zagat-rated restaurants along Historic Main Street. Need some additional dining options? See a complete list on our site: <http://www.visitparkcity.com/meeting-and-group-planning/group-dining/>

- 8:00 am Check Out and Breakfast: Allow your group to check out of their accommodations and plan a group breakfast off-site. This will allow your guests an opportunity to pack for their departures.
- 10:00 am Activity: Plan a final group activity at the Utah Olympic Park. Start with a self-guided tour through the two Olympic museums, catch The Flying Aces All-Star Aerialists performance from the ski jumps located on the mountainside and end with a team-building ropes course or bobsled run. This will leave your guests with an experience they will be talking about for years to come.
