10 ESSENTIAL

SEE IT

1 Come and experience the year-round festivals that celebrate everything from Mardi Gras and craft beer to barbecue and the arts. Most festivals are held at Festival Plaza in downtown Shreveport and are family-friendly.

2 Book a group tour to become immersed in the unique culture of Shreveport-Bossier: Louisiana's Other Side. Groups of 10 or more looking for something fun can now choose from one of 10 new group experiences. From roses and wine to music and science, groups will embark upon a fun journey. For more information about group experiences, visit www.Shreveport-Bossier.org/Experiences

3 Discover the charm of rural Louisiana by traveling the Boom or Bust Byway. This scenic byway tour winds its way through historic towns like Oil City, Plain Dealing and Homer. Download the GPS-driven tour onto a smartphone by searching for the free "N LA Byways" app in iTunes or Google Play, or check out a free GPS at the Downtown Shreveport Visitor Center, located at 629 Spring St., Shreveport. SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER EXPERIENCES

BET IT

- 4 Try your luck at Shreveport-Bossier's six riverboat casinos and one "racino," offering 24-hour excitement for gaming enthusiasts. Whether you love a good slot machine or enjoy table games such as craps and roulette, you'll find excitement here. For more information about casinos in Shreveport-Bossier, visit www.Shreveport-Bossier.org/Casinos
- 5 Experience the pulse-pounding excitement of live thoroughbred racing every May through September and quarter horse racing from January through March at Harrah's Louisiana Downs, home to a nearly year-round calendar of live simulcast horse racing action. See listing p. 12
- 6 Check out the area's newest casino. Margaritaville Resort Casino was named Best Overall Property in the Mid-South Region in Southern Gaming & Destination Magazine's 2015 Readers' Choice Awards. See listing p. 13

TASTE IT

- 7 Treat yourself to fried chicken at The Cotton Boll Grill. Listed by Louisiana Cookin' magazine among the best places in Louisiana to eat fried chicken, The Cotton Boll Grill is an old-school "greasy spoon" of the highest order. The chicken here can be a revelation: a thick, crunchy coating gives way to tender, juicy meat. See listing p. 48
- 8 Try Shreveport-style stuffed shrimp at Brother's Seafood To Go, a restaurant run by descendants of the original owners of Freeman & Harris Café. Shreveport-style stuffed shrimp are a local delicacy. These large, succulent shrimp are stuffed with fiery Creole dressing, deep-fried and served with a spicy tartar sauce. See listing p. 47
- 9 Head to Fertitta's Delicatessen, Shreveport's oldest continuously operated restaurant. The mom-and-pop sandwich shop specializes in muffalettas. Their signature sandwich, "The Muffy," is a smaller, single-serving version of the famous New Orleans cold cut sandwich topped with olive mix, mustard and American cheese. See listing p. 47
- 10 May 2015, the Louisiana Legislature approved an official meal for northwest Louisiana. It includes iconic dishes like fried catfish, purple hull peas and hot water cornbread.

SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER

On the cover: David Doe, Co-Manager of Herby K's

Grab a seat at this historic seafood restaurant that's been run by the same family since 1936, and order up a "Shrimp Buster." This unique twist on the fried shrimp po-boy features jumbo Gulf shrimp that are pounded flat before being fried and stacked, open-faced sandwich style, on buttery French bread.

Shreveport-Bossier: Louisiana's Other Side is situated in the northwest corner of Louisiana. Local cuisine reflects the influences of the Cajun and creole kitchens of South Louisiana, as well as the legendary pit barbecue culture of Texas. Add to this mixture a heavy influence of "country cooking" and soul food, and Shreveport-Bossier's food scene becomes even more enticing. Food lovers will find much to enjoy about Shreveport-Bossier, a community where many culinary influences converge.
